The Card-Hegging Nuisance.

To the Editor of THE EVENING STAR: as are offered for sale. In the view of parents this new diversion may no doubt ap-pear laudable. By industriously appealing for cards from door to door and store to store, the youth certainly may acquire one accomplishment—that of begging. Such a beginning, well followed, will in time impart to the boy the necessary cheek to become ere long an unblushing borrower of cigars and postage stamps, and even of money. It really amounts to practising first lessons in mendicancy. To merchants this begging is becoming an intolerable bore. It is a mistake to imagine that they deem the circulation their cards courtesy toward all customers. To the already sufficiently overworked clerks this begging is a burden, the more intolerable since it is most annoying on the busiest day of the week, that is on Saturday. Several thousands of children, and not only children properly so called, but boys old enough to be taught better manners, and girls of an age when modesty should be deemed of more value to them than all else, seem to be turned loose to swarm the business streets, to the terror of shopkeepers and their employes. This brings an incalculable increase of duty with no corresponding compensation whatever, either to master or man, but on the contrary is perpiexing to both. And in some cases the vexatious problem arises, how to meet this profitless custom and how to evade it so that legitimate business be not frus-trated. No allusion is here made to the cost of the cards. Are parents willing that their children should thus impose on good nature?

Down With the Sparrows. To the Editor of THE EVENING STAR. I was greatly pleased with the editorial in your lessue of the 13th instant in regard to the "useless and pestilent little sparrow," and trust that other papers will do us a like service in calling public attention to this nuisance. The entire city swarms with these birds; and every housekeeper can bear testimony to the fact that more damage is done to cornice, window shutters, porches and door steps by their filthy stains than from all other causes combined. Their introduction here was intended as an additional charm to our beautiful parks, but we have been sadly disappointed in them. Down

Father Boyle's Death. THE CIRCUMSTANCES ATTENDING IT-SOME PACTS ABOUT THE OPERATION PERFORMED AND THE AD MINISTRATION OF ETHER.

Various conflicting statements have been made regarding the circumstances attending the death of Father Boyle, at Providence hospital, last Monday, some of which, it is claimed, have done injustice to the physicians. The operation performed on Father Boyle was that known as lithotrity, and not lithotomy. It differs from the latter operation by not involving an incision. An instrument known as the lithotrite is used, and is introduced into the bladder by natural channels, danger from the operation. The stone is crushed by an ingenious appliance on this instrument, and the particles can then be easily washed away. A surgeon who was present when the operation was performed, and who is fully acquainted with the freumstances attending it, gives the following particulars to a STAR reporter. Instead of resisting the administration of ether, Father Boyle and experienced no inconvenience. The stone was crushed perfectly, and while the surgeons were congratulating themselves upon the success of the operation, Father Boyle's head fell back, and he pulse-beats. The ether was administered with great care. The surgeons are not prepared to say that the apoplectic condition was not superinduced by the administration of the ether. It was administered with all the usual safeguards, and there was no more reason to expect a serious result than in other cases in which the same treatment has been successfully followed, especially in view of the fact that Father Boyle represented that he had taken it before without suffering inconverience.

The South Washington Railroad A MEETING OF CITIZENS LAST NIGHT AT WHICH A

MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS WAS ADOPTED-A SHARP WAR AGAINST THE RAILROAD COMPANIES PRO-Quite a large meeting of citizens, mainly those of South Washington, was held last night, at St-Dominic's hall, to consider the report of a committe appointed, several months ago, by the committe of one hundred citizens, looking towards a Beverley. removal of the tracks of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad, from Virginia and Maryland avenues. and 6th street to a point further south, and draft a memorial and bill to present to Congress touching the grievances they have to complain of | fries. about this railroad company. There was quite a large attendance, and much interest was manifested. Mr. C. P. Culver called the meeting to order and explained its objects. Dr. J. C. Morgan was chosen chairman, with Mr. E. D. Wright as secretary. Mr. Culver, as chairman of the executive committe, who had charge of the subject, read a carefully written memorial prepared by him, to accompany the bill, which is to be presented to A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS.

This memorial is lengthy and very exhaustive in its treatment of the whole subject of alleged violations by the railroad company of its charter, in making a common depot of the avenues and moval, and shows its feasibility; states many of debate the evils complained of by the alleged abuse of the franchise granted this company, and sets forth that there can be no objection to the plan proposed on the part of any one. The memorial states that in lieu of a plan for relieving the avenues and streets of the railroad tracks and the nuisances attending them, Engineer Commissioner Twining's report to Congress concerning the proposed union depot was a report of how not to do it. The memorial suggests that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad can be made to deflect in a southeasterly direction at Bladensburg, approaching the city on the east side of the Eastern Branch, and crossing that stream at or about the same point as that where the B.and P.railroad crosses it; the widening of the tunnel so as to make four instead of two tracks; the deflection of the tracks of this last named LADIES' JEWELRY-Hot spring crystals, gold road from the direction now taken, where it emerges from the tunnel to K street southwest, and so on to squares 591, 589, 541 and 542, situated be-tween 2d and 4% and H and K streets southwest, where should be located the union depot for passengers and express freight. the square south of and contiguous to the square to be devoted to other freight; the roads to continue over elevated tracks of sufficient height so as not to interfere with travel upon the streets on the line of K street to Water street, and in the same manner over Water street to the Long bridge, &c., &c., making a southern connection for all the roads. Mr. Culver spoke at some graved goblets, 47c. % doz.; London goblets, 24c. % length, giving figures to show the benefits that would accrue to property-owners if the proposed plan were adopted. He remarked that two of the District Commissioners were in hearty sympathy with the proposed location of this depot.

THE BILL AND MEMORIAL INDORSED. The secretary, Mr. Wright, then read the bill, The secretary, Mr. Wright, then read the bill, covering all the points mentioned in the memorial. The report was heartly indersed and accepted by the meeting, and all present signed their names to the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city said there should be no the democrats of this city at heart. the memorial. Addresses were made by Mr. E. D. Wright, Dr. Charles Allen, Rev. Dr. Bittinger, and by the chair, in support of the measures proposed for disposing of this vexed question.

A committee, consisting of Dr. Crook, Dr. Fenwick, Mr.E.D. Wright, C. P. Culver, and J. W. Barker, was appointed to collect funds to carry out the objects of the meeting, print the bill for distribution to Congress, present the same, and attend to its passage.

The executive committee was then authorized to obtain signatures of all the citizens of South Washington to the memorial. A resolution offered by Mr. Wright that it is the sense of this meeting ecute the Bultimore and Potomac Railroad pany for occupying Virginia and Maryland avenues was unanimously adopted. Mr. Wright recited the fact of the killing of a child of Mr. Phillips, living on Virginia avenue, near 4% street, not many weeks ago, and said the action and verdict of the coroner's jury in the case had been squelched, it never having been published in the newspapers. Dr. Allen said that the District Commissioners have received, through L. P. Gr flith & Co., of Bal-timore, a copy of their large print representing the struction of the Jefferson school building, as it should be rebuilt somewhere out of the way of this . J. Shillington sends Demorest's Monthly and railroad, showing that the people were giving away to this corporation. Dr. Allen stated that Boss Shepherd did one good act in this city, which was the tearing up of the old Alexandria and Washington railroad track on Maryland avenue, at the commencement of his career, and opined that a similar act now would not be out of place. Quite a number of voices scattered about the room were heard, "I'll assist," "I'll help." &c. Dr. Morgan said he would bear testimony to the sincerity of two of the Commissioners in their sympathy with the citizens of South Washington, and he hoped that Major Twining would not an-avenue, between 8d and 4% streets, was the scene of a very animated gathering last night. It was the convention of colored citizens, called to arrange for a celebration of the coming anniversary of emancipation day. The oratorical energy and parliamentary wisdom dtsplayed called up reminiscences of old days, when every night had its conventions or ward meeting. "Squire" Wall presided with an unctious dignity that would have been creditable to Brother Gardner, of the Lime Kiln subjecting the patient to very little suffering, or "Brother" Smith, who insisted upon pulling the chair's coat-tails, and instructing that official as to his duties, and now appealing to some factious members to "hold on a moment, gentleman." The stentorian tones of Perry Carson threatened now and then the tympanium with annihilation, while young and rising orators, with penetrating voices, held the floor, six or eight at a time, each refusing to budge an inch until he had his rights. A selfearnestly requested it, and insisted that no instru- appointed sergeant-at-arms stirred up the wordy ment should be used upon him until he was etherized, stating that he had used ether before when there were any signs that the convention was about to become quiet.

O. S. B. Wall was chosen temporary chairman and Messrs. C. C. Brisco and W. F. Hamlin secretaries. Messrs. W. C. Chase, P. H. Carson, John soon died, the cause of death being apoplexy or congestion of the brain. MR. CHASE'S RESOLUTIONS. W. C. Chase offered a resolution, which after a flourishing preamble, paying tribute to the memory of Frederick Douglass, Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Wendell Phillips, Highland Garnet, and Charles Sumner, set forth that the 20th anniversary of the proclamation of emanciption on Monday, April 17th, and instructed the chair to appoint committees of seven each on arrangements, finance, speakers, and military; and that a chief marshal be elected by the convention. Warner Hall wanted to know if they should forget John Brown and mention Charles Sumner.

Here a rambling and big-worded discussion sprang up as the relative merits of various champions of freedom. Mr. Hall becoming very vociferous, some one the rear of the hall shouted out,"I think Mr. Hall is a nuisance." Thereupon Mr. Hall waded through acres of imaginary gore and shouted out his rage, making his shrill voice heard above the uproar in the hall. Finally, a number of delegates gathered around Mr. Hall, and the chairman, having appealed to Mr. Hall "not to break up the meeting," Mr. Hall was quieted for a time. A number of speeches were made by defenders of different "champions" and the resolutions were finally adopted with a few verbal amendments.

PERRY CARSON NOMINATED. Nominations for chief marshal being called for, W. C. Chase rose and with an impressive speech made a nomination. He rose, he said, to nominate a man and a citizen-one who was not a scholar. or a poet, or a statesman; but one who had the incolored procession on the avenue, said he would march up and down this avenue with a colored procession or die." "Who do you mean?" shouted an unterrified del gate, taking advantage of a dramatic pause. "And that man," continued Delegate Chase, rolling his words, "is Colonel Perry H. Carson." J. A. Johnson, Aaron Russell, O. S. B. Wall, and Chas. H. Marshall were put in nomination, the latter being named by Delegate Hall because he was the blackest man in the hall and hence the best representative of the negro race. Mr. Wall having with frawn his name, the convention proceeded to ballot. The vote resulted as follows: Carson, 35; Johnson, 12; Marshall, 5; Russell, 1.

THE COMMITTEES. Mr. Baltimore offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the chief marshal to make every effort to keep disorderly persons out of the procession. THE EXHAUSTED SCHOOL FUNDS. Mr. Middleton, in reporting audited bills amounting to $7,622.33, said that there was staring them in the face the report of the auditor showing ber to her usual Wednesday reception, which that the funds were all drawn, or about drawn. Most of these bills were payable from the contingent fund, in which there was but a balance of $80 but the committee had nothing to do but report them. He presented a paper recommending that The committee on credentials reported the fola special committee, through the commissioners mmediately report to Longress the condition o the contingent fund, having current claims against it amounting to upwards of $1,500, and to represent that a deficiency of $10,000 is absolutely needed to allow the schools to be fully equipped for the remainder of the scholastic year; also that attention be called to the account for "compensation of employees, public schools," as the fund of $10,000 for account of increased pay and additional teachers is entirely exhausted, and a sum of $8,000 is required at once to permit the continued employment of the present force, with whom contracts for the current year have been made. SOCIETY NOTES.

Enjoyment of the informal small parties given during lent is generally expressed, and those who thus open their houses to their friends every week are commended by them for the oportunity offered to see more of each other, and their hostess than was possible at the crowded parties during the season. Several of these small entertainments were given yesterday. Gen. Drum and his wife and their daughter had their customary Tuesday evening reception, when the following ladies and gentlemen called: Senator Harrison's wife, son and daughter; Representatives Ranney and daughter, and Deering and wife and Mrs. Van Voorhis, General and Mrs. Holabird, Gen. and Mrs. Gilman, Dr. Van Vliet, Gen. and Mrs. Wright, Captain and Mrs. Hartley, Mr. Yarrow, Mrs. Frank Beach and daughter, Admiral English, and the Haytien minister's son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Alley gave a reception last evening in honor of Mrs. Claffin, to which gentle-men and ladies from Massachusetts were invited. This also was an informal soirée.

A "tea" to young ladies was given last evening by Mrs. and Miss Biddle. Representative Hardenbergh's wife returned to her home in New Jersey to-day, but will, it is hoped, come back to Washington before the adjournment of Congress.—Miss Annie Randall has returned from her visit to the north.— Rev. Geo. D. Baker and wife, of Detroit, are visiting Mrs. and Miss Bates, 1702 F street. They have just returned from Europe. - Secretary Hunt's wife has invited a limited numoccurs this evening. - Representative Bowman, who has been ill for several weeks, is better .-Miss Hattle Heard, Gen. Butler's niece, who has been a guest of Mrs. Jones, wife of the Senator from Nevada, for some weeks, leaves the city today, much to the regret of her large circle of friends.—Mrs. and Miss Grattan, also guests of Mrs. Jones, still remain with her.—Mr. H. M. Lincoln was called to Canandaigua on Tuesday by the death of his mother, which occurred that day. Mrs. Lincoln, who had been ill for some days, could not accompany her husband. The funeral took place to-day.

Coal Region.

CONSTERNATION AMONG THE CANAL MEN. The miners of the Cumberland coal region, 2,800 in number, left the mines yesterday. In several mines the men refused to work, but in the majority a full day was made. The reply of the Knights that Congress would be in session in time to consider any deficiency in the appropriation, etc. pleted. Trains on the Cumberland and Pennsyl- necessary. vania and George's Creek railroads, with the exception of passenger, were withdrawn to-day, throwing 200 men out of employment. A special have had but little faith in the Clearfield miners joining them in the issue, but it is said by those in position to know that there had been a reaction of feeling, and the opinion is expressed that the before there will be a general cessation of work in the soft coal regions of Pennsylvania and West Virginia. It can be stated on good authority that the companies are determined not to put their mines to work under any compromise other than 50 cents per ton and a complete surrender of all authority now being exercised over their property by the Knights of Labor. They admit and appreclate the fact that of their total number of employes they have 80 per cent of really intelligent and reliable men, whom they are reluctant to part with, and they will give that body every opportunity to control the minority, and should they be a surprise to see a change of population. mines has created considerable consternation about three thousand five hundred persons. among the boatmen. The people of this region, including the miners, have been laying in extra supplies of coal the past three days in anticipation of the strike. Dr. LAMSON CONVICTED AND SENTENCED .- Dr.

Lamson was convicted in London yesterday of the murder of his brother-in-law. Several of the jurymen were crying when they re-entered the court room, and others of them were ghastly pale. When the verdict was pronounced Dr. Lamson clasped his hands together and seemed for a moment in despair; but he quickly recovered his selfpossession, and, folding his arms, in a clear voice and with eyes uplifted slowly and deliberately said: "I protest my innocence before God." When Mr. Justice Hawking had concluded passing the death sentence Dr. Lamson, half throwing himself back into the arms of the wardens, was almost lifted from the dock. He was removed last night to the Wadsworth jail, where he will remain until the day of execution.

Obituary. The sad intelligence of the death of our esteemed friend Mrs. Mary A. Strait reached us this morning. In the noonday of life, surrounded by loving relatives, and kind and devoted friends, in the midst of a life of usefulness, she has been stricken down. A bright and loyous home, of which she was the light and happiness, useruinees, she has been stricken down. A bright and joyous home, of which she was the light and happinees, has been darkened by the fell destroyer. For the aged parents, who have lost a loving and dutiful daughter, the comfort of their declining years, the faithful sister, who watched by her so devotedly, we feel the deepest sympathy; but our heart yearns over the one upon whom this blow falls heaviest—the motherless child. Thus bereft in her tender years of that mother's kind and watchful care and loving sympathy, we earnestly pray that He may fold her in His everlasting arms and support her in this the hour of her deepest trouble. The amiability of character and many virtues of our departed friend are indelibly written upon the hearts of those who knew her best, and the influence of her life will be felt by the many friends to whom she had endeared herself by these rare qualities.

So, taking the worst possible view, you will come out 10 cents ahead on the can you buy, which is sufficient at least to pay your care fare to and fro. Our price is uniform, and never varies as follows: $1 per can, six cans for $5, twelve cans for $10, twenty-five cans for $20, or sixty-five cans for $50. Those who get up a club as a rule are perlectly satisfied with the presents they receive; so well satisfied, in fact, with either the tea or coffee, or the presents, or both, that they almost immediately send in the second club. Reader, you can easily get up a club. Suppose you try. It is impossible for you to lose anything, and you may get a hundred dollars or two hundred and fifty dollars if you get your order to us by next Saturday night. Our tea is put up in cans weighing (can and con-tents) 13 pounds, and cannot be beat in this city. Our coffee is a pure Mocha and Java mixed, none better in America, put up in cans weighing (can and contents) 31/4 pounds, and $1 takes any can in our store. We cordially invite one and all to pay us a visit to-day and see our immense stock not only of goods, but of money. We have on exhibition in our show window a pile of greenbacks seven or eight feet long and about four feet high, consisting of $1's, $2's, $5's, $10's, $20's, $50's, and $100's, in plain view, and three times as much in the store. Come and see the sight, even if you d not wish to buy. Below we give a partial list of those whom fortune favored Monday and vesterday. Read it, perhaps you have an acquaintance among the number.
